

MORNING WORSHIP

TRINITY SUNDAY

JUNE 7, 2020

11:00 AM

Welcome to worship! This is the focal point for our community life. The experience shapes, sustains, and sends us into the world as witnesses to God's love and justice.

New Speakers for the Adult Sunday School on Zoom, Sundays at 9:30 AM

The Adult Sunday School class has a new list of guest speakers for the coming months!

Sunday, June 14, Gyl Switzer, Executive Director of Texas Gun Sense, will be joining us to talk about gun violence prevention efforts in our state and how we, as individuals and as a church, can get involved.

June 21 & 28: Topics TBA

July 5, 12, and 19: Conversation on Anti-Racism Amelia is inviting members to read Ibram X. Kendi's book "How To Be An Anti-Racist" during the month of June and then to join a conversation about it on the first three Sundays in July. This is only the beginning of the conversation, so stay tuned for follow-up efforts to this initial discussion.

All UBC members are encouraged to join us for fellowship and authentic conversation, rooted in compassion. Even if you don't typically go to Sunday School during non-pandemic times!

This class meets each Sunday at 9:30 AM online here: <https://bit.ly/2XrePRK>. If you feel more comfortable, use the call-in feature by dialing 1-346-248-7799. The meeting number is 531 902 474 and the password is 2130.

Guest Preacher Next Sunday, June 14

Next Sunday, June 14, we will have a guest preacher in our worship service. Amy Litzinger is a lifelong traveler with Jesus, which means using her voice and her art to advocate with marginalized people to thrive, especially her peers with disabilities. In addition to her paid work as a non-profit policy specialist, she strives to help the community of faith become more inclusive by infusing a theology of disability into congregational culture and by including people with disabilities in discussions of access. Amy has grown up in the University Methodist Church, receiving her Bachelor of Arts in Religion from Southwestern University in 2010, and her Master of Arts in Theological Studies from Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary in 2015. She has been a certified instructor for DanceAbility International since 2015.

UBC COVID-19 Charity Giving Program Deadline June 15

As a result of hardships caused to our community due to the COVID-19 pandemic, UBC wishes to direct a portion of our funds to charities or nonprofit organizations who assist in addressing needs resulting from COVID-19. Every adult UBC member is invited to request a donation of $300 to a 501(c)(3) organization by emailing the official name and website of their selected organization to covid19response@ubcaustin.org or by calling the UBC office at (512) 478-8559, extension 200. The deadline is June 15, 2020. For more information and a sample list of organizations, please visit <https://bit.ly/3bVxQ2j> (link is case sensitive).

The COVID-19 Response Team is led by Ron Cockroft and includes Beverly Gavenda and Larry Deuser, with Rev. Amelia Fulbright and Paul Taylor.

Victims of COVID-19

The ministry staff of UBC and CCA are collecting the names of those in our membership and those close to our members who either are sick with COVID-19 or who have died from this disease. This is in addition to our usual call for prayer requests.

As we receive these names, each one will be written on a small slip of paper and placed in a vessel with other names, as a way to contain our grief and to hold space for each of these beloved children of God in the weeks ahead. We have a vase for the names of those who are sick and a basket for the names of the deceased.

Please send us the names of anyone you would like us to include, we will add them, and we will pray for them in the weeks ahead. You can email us at staff@ubcaustin.org.
